

Vol. 18#189
1/48

OPTION IS THINE

he following to the
of His saints while Isaiah 52.

ake! Oh, Church of thy strength, thou
self weak, who tak-
of helplessness—
dare to call Me et My strength is power, and, dwell-
motivate thee. re-

I am thy life; I
fe. When thou wast
hee live and live
ut on thy beautiful oliness! Come to me
pon, for I, Who am
led thee that thou
partaker of my ho-

Shake off the dust
liments, stretch thyberation, and fling
neck-bands which ee with hindering
people's domination,
it been redeemed;
me. I have set thee
d to live abundantly.

Nor seek the easy
et shall be beauti-
ost carry my glad
the mountain tops.
to troubled hearts
people, thy God

rior is He far away, heareth thee, for
! Break forth into ether, for the Lord
thee consolation, the full blood-bought
y Word, My sanc-

now makes thee
n, all ye that bear
the Lord. Retain ancy with perfect
behold, I will lead
umpantly and God
be thy great Re-

The Home Field

Seeley D. Kinne writes, "Today is my birthday (December 30), 89 years completed. Starting my 90th year. Am in the best state ever. Hallelujah!" His new book, "The Kingdom," which was just recently published, is obtainable at the Elim Book Room or direct from him at Sonoma, California.

Brother and Sister Ward Lusk with several of the student from Elim have started a Sunday School in East Corning. They report good attendance and the blessing of the Lord and ask our prayers for this new Work.

The Sunday School recently opened near Bath, New York by Brother and Sister Wellington Yeo and several of the students, is progressing well. Also, the students who have taken the responsibility of the new works at Yorks Corners and the 106 Settlement report the rich blessing of the Lord at these places.

Miss Hilda Longstreth is making application for a boat reservation to return to China in April with Mrs. H. A. Baker. The present unsettled condition may affect their sailing, but we request prayer for them that the Lord will open the way before them.

Roy Hill recently completed an extensive itinerary in New England after which he held special services at Elkland, Pennsylvania. He is now in special meetings at Mohawk, N. Y. where Mrs. Cook is pastor.

Brother and Sister Darwin Shea have moved to Mobile, Alabama, where he has recently accepted the pastorate.

Robert Vinson, pastor of the End Time Mission in Elmira, New York, reports the blessing of the Lord in the two series of special meetings held there recently. An all-day Missionary meeting was held there January eleventh and the good services were greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

T. Arthur Lewis and family have returned to Rochester, N. Y., after spending several months in California.

Bessie Potter and Marian Wall are assisting in the Work at Westport, Pennsylvania. Eva Butler and Eileen Howe write that they have moved to Pottersdale (on the mountain), where they previously started a Sunday School. Several have been saved and the Lord is richly blessing.

Walter Gretz has accepted the pastorate of the assembly in Lake Ariel, Pennsylvania.

Arthur Stanton just completed a series of special services at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, where Fredrick Upton is pastor, and is spending a week visiting other assemblies in New England.